The energy crackled at the World Kickboxing Championship, fueled by the thunderous roar of Team India. Not only did our athletes bring their fire, but they were inspired by the unwavering support of our honorable President, present with outstretched arms. Witnessing him share the stage with WAKO dignitaries at the Opening Ceremony was a moment of immense pride.

And when an Indian fighter sent their opponent reeling, the stadium erupted in a breathtaking wave of patriotism. It was pure magic, a chorus of "Jai Hind!" echoing through the stands. Then came the moment that sent shivers down spines – the WAKO India President leaping in jubilation as a young Indian champion toppled a superpower! These aren't just victories; they're history in the making for the athletes and WAKO India. So, raise a toast to our young guns, these fearless warriors carrying the torch of hope and excellence. Their victories are our victories, their journey our anthem. Let's roar together, "Go Team India!"
