25th All India Police Band Competition

Mr. Santosh Kumar Agrawal, President of WAKO INDIA Kickboxing Federation met with Shri (Brig.) R Sundaram, Dy. Director of the All-India Police Sports Control Board (AIPSCB) at his office in Delhi on 9th August 2024.

During their discussion, they reviewed the current status of kickboxing sports programs and explored various strategies for the advancement of Kickboxing. Shri Sundaram assured Mr. Agrawal that Kickboxing will soon be included in the All-India Police Games.

On November 21, 2024, our athletes delivered outstanding performances in 'Kickboxing Demo Event' during the All India Police Band Competition-2024, which is being held from 16-22 Nov. 2024 at the Assam Rifles Unit, Sukhovi, Dimapur, Nagaland.

This demo event also marked a significant step towards the inclusion of Kickboxing as a sport in the AIPSCB discipline list. The demonstration event, which showcased Kickboxing, played a crucial role in advocating for its inclusion. On this occasion, Lt. Gen Vikas Lakhera AVSM, SM, Director General of Assam Rifles as the chief guest, Shri Vineet Kumar Rathaur, IPS Representative -AIPSCB as a special guest and other dignitaries, Lt. Col. Tejendra Singh Shekhawat, Brigadier Raman R, Assam Rifles - Organizing Secretary were present and honored the event with their presence.

Mr. Santosh Kumar Agrawal, the Honourable President of WAKO India, introduced the Kickboxing Demo Event and shared insights into the remarkable achievements of WAKO India on the international stage. He highlighted the significant progress made in promoting kickboxing, both nationally and globally. Mr. Agrawal also elaborated on the kickboxing sport in the country, emphasizing the importance of academies and clubs in nurturing talent and enhancing the sport's reach. His words were motivational, inspiring athletes to strive for excellence and continue pushing the boundaries of their potential in kickboxing.

During the Kickboxing Demo Event Mr. Hiranya Barua, President and Mr Bijay Rabha, General Secretary of Kickboxing Association of Assam, Mr. C. Suresh Babu- Chief Coach - WAKO India coaching committee, Tamil Nadu, Mr. Biswanath Roy- Gen. Secretary, West Bengal Sports Kickboxing Association and other key officials, were present and instrumental in this effort. Their support was pivotal in the Kickboxing sport's journey toward securing a permanent place in the AIPSCB Sports discipline list.

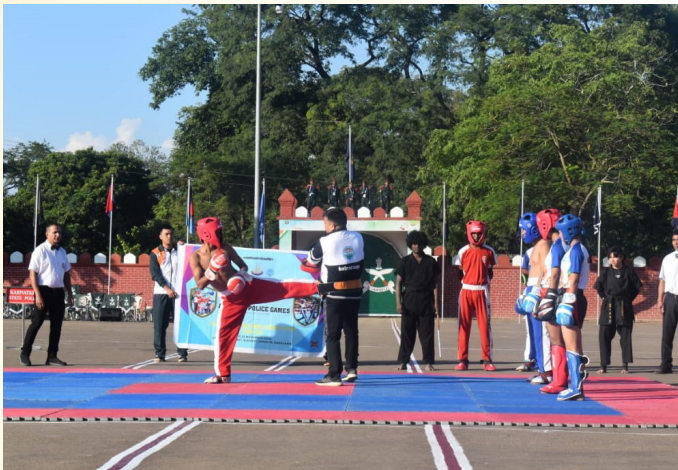

The kickboxing demonstration performed by our National and International athletes was extraordinary. Their skill, precision, and intensity captivated the audience, showcasing the incredible talent within the sport. It is our hope that this outstanding performance will pave the way for kickboxing to be included AIPSCB Sports discipline list in the near future. The athletes truly demonstrated the potential and excitement of this dynamic sport, leaving us all eager for its official recognition.

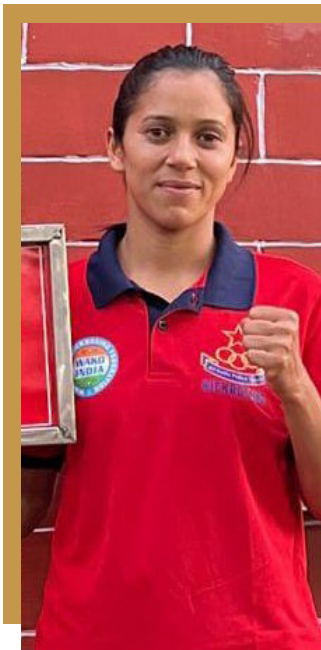

Our National and International athletes who showcased their exceptional performance in
